

College of Europe
Collège d'Europe

Natolin

ECTS CARD

STUDY PROGRAMME

European Interdisciplinary Studies, Natolin campus (Advanced Academic Master)

YEAR

2019-2020

COURSE TITLE

EU Decision-making and Interest Representation in Practice / Le processus décisionnel de l'Union européenne et la représentation d'intérêts

SEMESTER

2

COURSE PROFESSOR(S)

Vicky MARISSSEN

ACADEMIC ASSISTANT(S)

Maryia BRESKAYA

COURSE TYPE

Simulation Game

MAJOR(S)

EPAP

ECTS CREDITS

No ECTS

CONTACT HOURS

8

INDIVIDUAL STUDY TIME

TUTORIAL(S)

COEFFICIENT

Not applicable

LANGUAGE(S)

EN & FR

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Detailed understanding of the EU decision-making process
- Good insights on the various stakeholders active at EU level and how to advocate interest at best
- Practical understanding of negotiation and communication techniques
- Practical experience in formulation of arguments
- Develop of inter-personal skills

RECOMMENDED PREPARATION (TBC)

Each participant is required to do recommended background reading, personal preparation before the negotiation sessions. Independent research by students is recommended and the basis of a pre-conceived questionnaire.

TEACHING METHOD(S)

Lecture, Q&A, simulation exercise

ASSESSMENT METHOD AND CRITERIA

Not applicable.

COURSE CONTENTS

Session 1: lecture, briefing exercise and Q&A (2 hours)

- EU decision-making system with specific focus on the adoption process for implementing acts and the specific role of the European Medicines Agency, the EU Commission, Member states and the EU Court of Justice
- Orphan legislation: how it operates and key principles to take into account
- Lobbying and communication techniques and strategies at EU level

Session 2: simulation exercise (2 blocks of 2 hours; total: 4 hours)

Session 3: debriefing (2 hours)

COURSE MATERIALS (readings and other learning resources/tools)

EU Orphan legislation, booklet 'the Orphacol saga', Books: 'New practical Guide to the EU labyrinth', 'Handbook on EU secondary legislation'