

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME “NATO’S STRATEGIC CHALLENGES: PEACE, PERDURANCE AND TRANSATLANTIC UNITY”

31 January 2014 - Verversdijk 16, Bruges, 8000 Belgium

PROVISIONAL PROGRAMME:

31 January 2014

15h-16h SPEAKERS’ ROUND-TABLE:
“WHAT FUTURE FOR NATO AFTER 2014: COMBAT, PEACEKEEPING, REGIONAL DETERRENCE OR SOFT-POWER INERTIA?”
By invitation only.

16h30-18h30 MAIN CONFERENCE:
NATO’S STRATEGIC CHALLENGES: PEACE, PERDURANCE AND TRANSATLANTIC UNITY
Verversdijk Building A, Auditorium 1
Open to College of Europe students and public.

CHATHAM HOUSE RULE: Speakers' Comments are Not for Attribution.

- Session Chair: Professor Marco Rimanelli (Fulbright-Schuman Chair College of Europe-Bruges, Belgium)

1. “Myth and Reality of E.U. «Soft-Power»: Political Influence, Peacekeeping, Civil-Military Stabilization, Sanctions and Relations with NATO?”
by Professor Stefan Fröhlich (University of Nürnberg, Germany – Visiting Professor, College of Europe)
2. “Why U.S. and European interests continue to coincide from the Cold War to the Post-Cold War, and how the two sides manage their relationship across security, political, economic and other interests.”
by Ambassador Christopher Murray (Political Advisor to NATO's Supreme Allied Commander Europe)
3. “Russia and NATO 1990s-2020s: between Constant Friction and Selective Cooperation on Regional Security”
by Professor Hall Gardner (Director Comparative & International Politics, American University of Paris, France)
4. “NATO’s New Threats: Evolving Geo-Strategic Concerns, 1990s-2020s (WMDs, Rogue States, Terrorism, Piracy, Cyber-attacks, Illegal Migrations, Regional Destabilization)”
by Professor Jamie Shea (Deputy-Assistant Secretary-General NATO – Visiting Professor, College of Europe)
5. “NATO Enlargements and Partnerships: Benefits and Challenges for TransAtlantic Post-Cold War Security Architecture”
by Professor Marco Rimanelli (Fulbright-Schuman Chair College of Europe-Bruges, Belgium)

College of Europe
Collège d'Europe

Brugge

Natolin

European Political and Administrative Studies
EU International Relations and Diplomacy Studies

6. “Blind spots in the EU's and NATO's long-term strategy”

by Professor Stephan Keukelere (Jean Monnet Chair, University of Leuven & Visiting Professor, College of Europe, Belgium)

18h30-19h00 QUESTIONS & ANSWERS SESSION